

How to Join Helta eV

Membership dues are €30 annually, based on a calendar year, January – December. Entrance fees at many events are free or modestly priced at around €5; full or half-day workshops may cost more, but remain attractively priced. Whenever publishers are presenting teaching material, entrance is free.

If you would like to become a member, complete and mail the following form to:

HELTA Membership Application

(Please write very clearly.)

Name (first name, last name): _____

Address: _____

Telephone number: _____

Fax number: _____

Email address: _____

I am willing to have my address placed on Helta's email list.

Please note that we use the email list to send out event invitations and reminders. Inclusion in this list is important to us because it saves postage costs, time and administrative work. You can be assured that Helta will not give your email address to other organizations and you should not receive spam as a result of being on this list.

Membership is complete upon receipt of this form; we do not issue membership cards.

➔ If you join the association in September or later in the year, your membership fee will cover the current and following year; however, the direct debit will not be carried out until the following May (although you will be considered a full member).

Membership may be cancelled any time between January and April 15 for the current calendar year. After the direct debit in mid May there is no refund for a cancelled membership for the remainder of the calendar year.

Please contact Helta's treasurer if you have questions regarding payment:
