

English freelance teacher(s) in Hamburg needed

We are an international language school franchise group and our branch school in Hamburg is currently looking for one or several English language freelance teacher(s).

We are centrally located between Rödingsmarkt and Rathaus S-Bahn stations, a bus stop is also right in front of our building.

Our teaching hours are either 15:00-18:00 for daily intensive courses or 18:00-19:30 for evening courses once a week or 18:00-20:15 for courses twice a week. We also do private lessons with flexible appointment-making with the clients directly. Teaching hours then depend on the teacher-client relation. We also send our teachers to companies in the greater Hamburg region on request.

We usually pay € 20, - per 60 minutes (negotiable rates) but are more flexible when it comes to mobile in-company teaching expenses, so the final rate is always negotiable

We would expect a language teacher with either some experience in teaching English or a young professional with a fresh university degree in English, teaching, business or another communications-related subject major.

Applications can be sent directly to info@sprachschule-aktiv-hamburg.de and phone enquiries can be handled by calling 040 525 95 454. Contact person is Mayu Stölben and Florian Burkhardt.

We look forward to receiving applications.
